

Bonal International, Inc. Announces 55% Increase in Net Income at Six Months

Royal Oak, Mich., Nov. 10, 2006 – Bonal International, Inc. (OTC: BONL) today announced the results for the sixth month period ending September 30. Bonal recorded a 9.2% increase in net revenue of $1,002,334 in 2006 compared to $918,035 at the same time last year. Income before federal income taxes was $339,225 versus $217,593 last year. Net income after tax is $237,225 versus $152,593 last year, an increase of 55.5%.

Foreign sales are continuing to be strong at 35% of unit volume.

“Our subsidiary, Bonal Technologies is continuing to grow in both US and foreign sales. We are happy with our results,” said A. George Hebel, III, chairman of Bonal International. “Our profit surge is due to the ongoing effort to reduce expenses and buying in higher volume.”
